

Why this event...

How are companies doing with DFARs?

Biggest Problem for most companies is their subs

95% non compliant with required multi-factor authentication*

*Non-attributable statistical data (Sera-Brynn) Aug 2017

When you or you sub gets hacked !

DoD Approved Cloud Service Provider (CSP)

For CUI at stored at government approved cloud
Your CSP helps with the following;

Cyber Incident Reporting at cloud within 72 hours to DoD/CIO

- Identification, reporting and submission of malicious software
 - Media preservation and protection of affected information
 - Providing DoD access to additional information and equipment
 - For forensic analysis, and cyber incident damage assessment
-

What you get with a Government Approved Cloud Service Provider ?

A Government Approved "Adequate Security" for CUI

For Processing, Storing , and Transmitting

Cyber protected at Government Approved Cloud

With Software as a Service set up for this purpose!

Work with DoD approved Commercial CSP

Simple way forward to meet customers requirements for DFARS

DoD making high Priority move to Approved Commercial Cloud

CSP protects CUI for you, your customers and your key Subs

Work with Most Government Customers - DHS/DOD/GSA & Others

DoD Approved Cloud Service Provider (CSP) Delivers this and more continuous monitoring strategy incident response program

centralized auditing solution

two factor authentication

More NIST Controls (200+ 330+)

Simple to get started With DoD Approved CSP

Login to DoD approved Software as a Service at CSP

Setup two factor authentication in few hours

You still need NIST 800-171 controls for any CUI on your network

Immediate Results

With Approved Cloud Service Provider

Confirmation to Contracting Officer

You're ahead of your competition for next award working more securely with your customers and subs

DFARS compliant for all your contracts

Follow UP Discuss 10 Day Evaluation

For Primes-Subs-Supply Chain

Start with limited trial evaluation

Ready for 2018 awards

Next Step for Additional Benefits By 31 December 2017

1st GAP Analysis to cover any CUI at your site

2nd Use DoD Approved Cloud Service Provider

Bridge DoD Cloud with your current network security
