

March 7, 2018, Sinclair Community College, www.technologyfirst.org, #OISC18

7:30-8:00	Registration and Breakfast
8:00-9:00	Breakfast Keynote: The Future of Cyber-autonomy David Brumley, PhD, CEO ForAllSecure Professor, Carnegie Mellon University
Room #	116	131	120	127
9:00-10:00	Engaging Millennials & Gen Z'ers in Cybersecurity: Who Are They & How Do You Move Them From "Always Connected" to "Awesomely Secured?" Tom Skill, Associate Provost and CIO with Faculty, University of Dayton	Incorporating Cybersecurity into Industrial Automation and Control Systems Michael Vecetic, Connected Services, Rockwell Automation	Stealing Domain Admin (or How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love the CSSF) Jerod Brennen, Security Architect, One Identity	Risk Measurement: The Missing Link to Effective Cyber Risk Management Apolonio "Apps" Garcia, CEO, HealthGuard
10:00-10:30	Networking and Exhibitor Time
10:30-11:30	Blockchain: preparing for disruption Kevin Carpenter, Director RSM USA LLP	Conducting an Incident Response from a Forensics Standpoint Damon Hacker, President & CEO, Vestige Digital Investigations	DoD Requirement Toolkit for Manufacturers Dr. Hazem Said, Director and Daniel Glover, Graduate Student, University of Cincinnati Information Technology Solutions	Using Threat Intelligence to Improve Risk Management Michael Smith, Senior Director of Security Solutions, CenturyLink
11:30-12:30 (lunch) 12:30-1:30 (keynote)	11:30-12:30 LUNCH / Networking / Exhibitor Time Lunch Keynote: An Attacker's Perspective David Lavinder, Chief Technologist at Booz Allen Hamilton
1:30-2:30	Is RMF Worth the Cost? Rebecca Onuskanich, Cyber Enterprise Architect and Jeff Hughes, President, Tenet3	Cybersecurity in the Supply Chain Thomas Runge, Partner, Gratia	Security Threats Don't Discriminate. Learn how any size IT department can tackle today's – and tomorrow's – threats. Jeffrey Brenot, Network Operations Manager, CommuniCare Family of Companies	Regional Cyber Workforce Development Univ. of Cincinnati; Greentree Group; Sinclair College; Clark State; CinDay Cyber; DRSS; Dayton Development Coalition
2:30-3:00	Networking and Exhibitor Time
3:00-4:00	The People Problem: Examining the Weakest Link Dan Collins, Senior Risk Consultant,	Supercharged SIEM: Empowering your logs with the right data Tom Kopchak, Director of Technical Operations, Hurricane Labs	Policy Changes for Cyberspace Deterrence John S. Bommer, Jr. AFIT	When Healthcare Hurts: Preventing Cyber (Inflicted) Pain Mark Arnold, NaviSite
4:00-5:00	Wrap-Up CISO Panel: Leo Cronin, VP & Chief Security Officer, Cincinnati Bell Brian Lawhorn, Vice President and CISO, The Kroger Co. Lisa Heckler, CISO & VP, Information Security & Privacy, CareSource Gary Warzala, CISO, Fifth Third Bank Wine, beer and appetizers will be available Door Prize Winners will be posted.			